RD Bhanot, Chairman and Managing Director of Bhanot Group of Companies is a highly qualified professional and has an illustrious record to his credit. Apart from graduation he has professional qualification of the business management from British Institute of Management, London. His other qualifications like sales and marketing management and office management all from London.

While talking to Partha Pratim, Bhanot said when he left home had a clear vision to grow and he is one of those premier entrepreneurs who have given a new direction to the real estate industry.

Before starting his own Venture Bhanot Properties & industries limited he had a successful carrier with Escorts Group, Where he was involved with the entire gamut of management. His experience includes finance, material procurement, production planning control & supply.

BPIL under the able leadership and guidance of R.D. Bhanot has functioned as pioneering enterprise having introduced innovative schemes such as leasing and under-writing for the first time in real estate. BPIL became the first limited company to act as promoters & builders in Delhi. The Group has numerous projects under its belt as promoters, builders, developers and contractors. Which includes Commercial, Residential, Roads, Bridges & Farmlands.

Today, the Bhanot group has diversified its network with the inception of two more associated limited companies, Bhanot leasing Ltd. And Bhanot Construction & Housing Ltd.

The group is targeting to reach the four-fold growth in the years to come.
